LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT ACT OF 2001

Mr. SMITH of Oregon. Madam President, I rise today to speak about hate crimes legislation I introduced with Senator KENNEDY in March of last year. The Local Law Enforcement Act of 2001 would add new categories to current hate crimes legislation sending a signal that violence of any kind is unacceptable in our society.

I would like to describe a terrible crime that occurred in August 1994 in Sioux City, IA. Two gay men were assaulted in their home by two intruders. The assailants, Anthony L. Smith, 17, and Henry White, 18, were charged with first-degree burglary and second-degree criminal mischief under the State hate crime statute.

I believe that government's first duty is to defend its citizens, to defend them against the harms that come out of hate. The Local Law Enforcement Enhancement Act of 2001 is now a symbol that can become substance. I believe that by passing this legislation and changing current law, we can change hearts and minds as well.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

TRIBUTE TO JOAN REISCHE

• Mr. SMITH of New Hampshire. Madam President, I rise today to pay tribute to Joan Reische, this year's Families in Transition Volunteer of the Year. Joan has been a dedicated volunteer in the Manchester Community since the 1970's, proving time and again why she is so deserving of this year's award.

Joan has spent countless hours volunteering and enriching the lives of those less fortunate. She has been extremely active in the Manchester Area League of Women Voters, serving as President of the Chapter. She has also been a member of the Board of the Manchester Historical District Commission, a member of the Board of the Palace Theater for Performing Arts, a member and President of the Manchester Area Family Planning Council and current chair of Families in Transition. Joan also serves as a guest reader for the Manchester Elementary Schools, working with children learning English as their second language.

I applaud Joan's commitment to serving and improving her community. Her time spent volunteering is above and beyond any standards set forth by her fellow philanthropists. Joan serves as a positive example for all in the Granite State. I commend her dedication and wish her continued success in her endeavors. It is an honor to represent you in the U.S. Senate.●

HONORING THE AMERICAN HEART ASSOCIATION

• Mr. BUNNING. Madam President, I rise today to honor the members of the American Heart Association, AHA, for all that they have accomplished in this nation's ongoing struggle against heart disease and stroke.

Founded in 1924 by six cardiologists, the American Heart Association has worked for more than 70 years to accurately inform the American public of the dangers of heart disease and stroke. Through their effective fundraising efforts, the AHA has been able to perform extensive research on cardiovascular diseases and their effects on the American people. Research has shown that cardiovascular diseases, including heart disease and stroke, kill nearly 960,000 Americans each and every year; nearly a death every 33 seconds. Cardiovascular diseases also cost more than any other disease, with an estimated $330 billion in medical expenses and lost productivity in 2002.

Yesterday, Kentucky representatives of the Ohio Valley Affiliate of the AHA visited my office here in Washington. The information they provided proved to be quite shocking. In the Commonwealth of Kentucky, heart disease is the #1 killer. In fact, heart disease and stroke accounted for an astounding 43.5 percent of deaths in Kentucky in 1999; 12,098 Kentuckians died of heart disease and 2,710 died of stroke in 1999. Furthermore, Kentucky has the 6th highest death rate from heart disease, stroke, and other cardiovascular diseases in the nation. As can be seen through statistical data, cardiovascular diseases are killing Americans, specifically Kentuckians, in mass numbers every year. We must realize the severity of this problem and actively join the fight to ensure that future generations of Americans are well informed on how to prevent these diseases from occurring.

I applaud the work of the American Heart Association, especially that performed by the Ohio Valley Affiliate in Kentucky, and thank them for striving to create a healthier America. I ask that my fellow Senators join me in praising all involved with the AHA, for their work truly makes a difference to current and future generations of Americans.●

THE ZACHARY AND ELIZABETH FISHER DISTINGUISHED CIVILIAN HUMANITARIAN AWARD FOR 2001

• Mr. BURNS. Madam President, I rise today to pay tribute to a wonderful group of people from the Great Falls, MT. Today, The Great Falls Area Chamber of Commerce Military Affairs Committee, MAC, will receive the Zachary and Elizabeth Fisher Distinguished Civilian Humanitarian Award for 2001 at the Pentagon on May 1, 2002. The competition for this award encompassed the entire Department of Defense.

The First Award is given to individuals or organizations that demonstrate exceptional patriotism and humanitarian concerns for the members of the armed forces or their families.

As you may know, Great Falls, MT, is home to Malmstrom Air Force Base. The 341 Space Wing controls 200 Minuteman III missiles. I have had the pleasure to speak to members of MAC on several occasions over the years at their monthly luncheons held at Malmstrom Air Force Base. Let me tell you, as this award signifies, they are second to none. The support they show for our Malmstrom Air Force Base men and women is more than just these monthly luncheons. For many years, MAC has sponsored a free picnic for military members and their families, with over 5000 people attending the annual event. At these picnics, MAC gives away over $15,000 in prizes, which comes from the local merchants. They also sponsor annual golf tournaments, raising money for military support programs. The leadership of MAC and
